CHOCOLATE FESTIVAL

We are so excited to announce that we are participating as vendors in a Chocolate Festival. But this is not just about Chocolate. The event is organized and hosted by the NC State Women's Center and is held to support the fight against breast cancer.

During the event there will be samples of mouth watering chocolates from many different vendors (including us). And there will be vendors with chocolate products ready to purchase and take home for enjoyment later . . . .or to share with a friend. We will be donating a % of all our sales that day back to NC State Women's Center and the Komen foundation.

Tickets are sold in advance. Last year they sold out. So you will want to get yours ASAP.

This event is Wednesday October 3rd from 1pm—4pm. For more information please visit the following website: www.ncsu.edu/womens\_center. Just click on the Chocolate picture on the main page. Ticket information is posted on their website. You can also find out more by visiting our website at www.thechocolateworks.com/events.htm.

We feel strongly about giving back to the community that supports our business. And we have decided that after the Chocolate Festival we will be setting up a page on our website with special "Pink" products. All sales from "Pink" products will have a % donated to a local breast cancer foundation. This way we can support the fight against breast cancer all year long.

Be sure to check out the NC State Women's Center website. And I hope we'll be seeing many of you there.

PHOTO GALLERY

CHOCOLATE IS THE "FOOD OF THE GODS"

We have added a Photo Gallery to our website. We will be featuring new products, gift baskets, custom work, event photos, etc on this page. Being that we participate in many local events we felt this would be a great way to share with everyone what we are up to.

With the holidays coming up we also felt it would be a great idea to showcase some of our gift baskets. So there are several baskets shown on the website ranging from $25 up to $85. We have many more to add to the website. If you're looking for that perfect gift for someone special please think of us.

There are also pictures of one of the wedding shows we had a booth in. And we've finally added pictures of our Ribbon Cutting/Grand Re-Opening. If you missed this event you can still see how our turn out was.
